Children's & Youth

Welcome!

CHILDREN'S FRINGE

A Welcome from the Wolds Words Festival Team

2009 marks the festival's 8th year and we hope you will be joining us to enjoy a true variety of reading, writing and performance activities.

As part of the annual literature festival, the Children's and Youth Fringe Festival provides a wealth of activities for young people aged 0 – 18.

This year's festival is a 10-day feast of story times, arts & crafts, drama, dance, music, stage fighting and creative writing workshops throughout the East Lindsey District.

Hope to see you there...!

10.00am - 12.00pm
Conoco Room, Louth Library
£3.50 (including adults)
5 yrs +

Barrington Powells' show is full of fun for all the family! Once the word is out, there is usually standing room only, with contagious laughter and a roller-coaster of frivolity! He's performed everywhere from Downing Street to India causing unforgettable magic in his wake and is a master class in stand-up comedy! From a one time clown doctor to court jester you'll be spell bound by the magical journey he'll take you on!

Tennyson and the Magic of Poetry Workshop with Barrington Powell

2.00pm - 4.00pm
Conoco Room, Louth Library
£3.50 (including adults)
5 yrs +

Potty about poetry and thought you knew everything about Alfred Lord Tennyson? Then think again. No matter what your age, you'll be celebrating Alfred's 200th birthday in style learning fascinating facts, from Timbuctoo, the Lady with her shallots, to the infamous Charge of the Light Brigade. Surely, education was never this much fun as a child!? Let the imagination run wild, with this specially created show, especially for the festival!

Alford Manor House, ALFORD
£3.50
To book, call 01507 463073

Learn how to write like the medieval monks did, using broad-edged pens. Calligraphy means beautiful writing and before printing was invented books were written using quill pens made from goose and swan feathers. Experiment with a range of materials (from felt tip to quill pen) and have fun discovering how to construct letterforms. No experience necessary. All tools and materials will be provided. Bring an old shirt or wear old clothes.

Sunday 25th October

Bink & The Hairy Fairy presented by the People's Theatre Company

2.00pm and 5.00pm

Riverhead Theatre, LOUTH

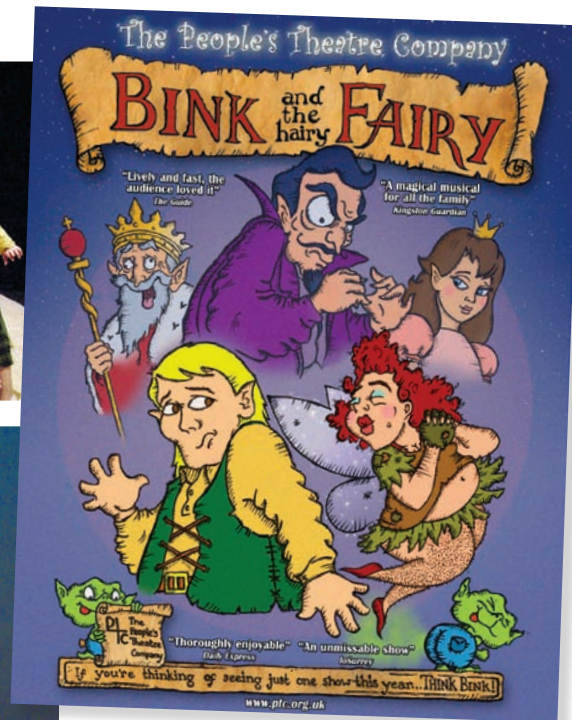

£8 (Under 18's £4)

To book, call 01507 600350

Lord Murkor is a wicked elf. An incredibly powerful, wicked elf with an incredibly evil and sinister plan, and if that plan works then soon the royal family will be dead and Murkor will rule the Kingdom of the Elves in their place!

The only chance the Elves have is if Bink can think of a way to save them...

But thinking is not exacting Bink's strong point. Can the loyalty of his friends, the love of the princess or a wonderful sprite secret help Bink defeat Lord Murkor, or is he going to need something altogether more magical... and just a teensy bit hairier?

Booking essential for all events. Tickets for all chargeable activities/workshops are available on-line at www.woldswords.org.uk or from the Festival Box Office 9.00am to 5.00pm Monday to Friday 01507 329437, unless otherwise stated.
